

Measured in Change

From electricity and health coverage to child survival and women's representation, Rwanda offers a clear case study in measurable progress.

6% → 80.1%*Electricity Access

Rwanda expanded electricity access from around 6% in 2009 to 80.1% in 2024.

World Bank (2024); World Bank Rwanda Country Partnership Framework documentation (2024).

100%Hospitals & Public Facilities Electrified

By 2024, 100% of Rwanda's health centres and administrative facilities had electricity.

Healthcare

02/06 →

Expanded health-insurance coverage and basic infrastructure have strengthened access to essential public health services across Rwanda.

74% → 85%

Health-insurance Coverage

85% of Rwanda's population had health insurance in 2024, up from 74% in 2017

152 → 42

Under-five deaths per 1,000

Rwanda reduced under-five mortality by about 72% between 2000 and 2022.

National Institute of Statistics of Rwanda, EICV7 Main Indicator Report; World Bank Rwanda documentation.

CHARTED GROUND

Women's Representation

03/06 →

Rwanda has transformed women's presence in parliament, moving from a small minority of legislators to the highest share of women in a national lower or single chamber worldwide.

4.3% → 63.8%

Women in Rwanda's Lower House

By 2025, women held 63.8% of seats in Rwanda's Chamber of Deputies: 51 of 80 seats. This was the highest share of women in a national lower or single house of parliament in the world. That represents an increase of 59.5 percentage points since 1995.

Inter-Parliamentary Union, Women in Parliament 1995–2025 and IPU Parline data.

CHARTED GROUND

Education

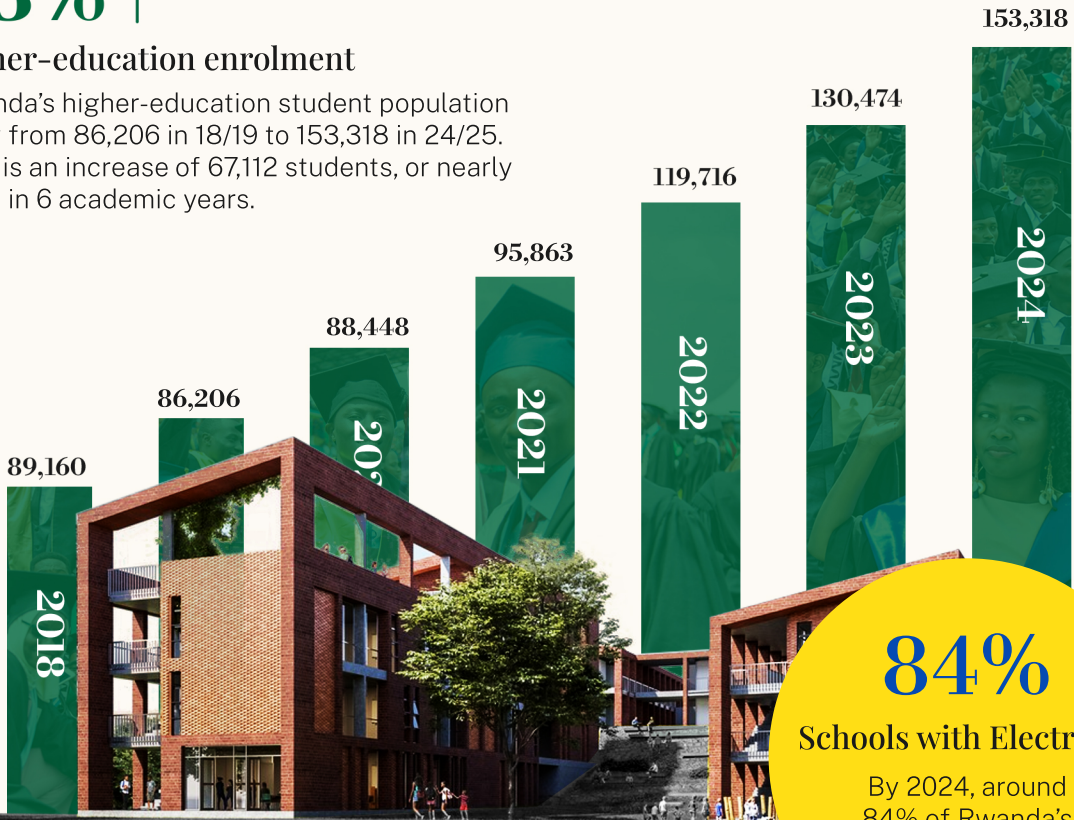

04/06 →

Rwanda has expanded access to education while extending electricity and infrastructure across its schools, creating the foundations for a larger and more connected learning system.

78% ↑

Higher-education enrolment

Rwanda's higher-education student population grew from 86,206 in 18/19 to 153,318 in 24/25. That is an increase of 67,112 students, or nearly 78%, in 6 academic years.

84%

Schools with Electricity

By 2024, around 84% of Rwanda's schools had electricity.

Economy

05/06 →

Rwanda's economy is still small, landlocked, and exposed to external shocks. But the data shows meaningful progress in growth, job creation, financial access, and investment.

48% → 96%

Financial inclusion from 2008 to 2024

Rwanda expanded financial inclusion giving 7.8 million adults access to credit, savings, and essential financial services.

500K

Jobs created

Rural areas drove job growth, and services regained the top employment spot for the first time since 2019.

$872.9M

Foreign direct investment

That was 21.8% higher than the $716.5 million recorded in 2023. Total foreign private-capital inflows reached $1.10 billion.

1.5M

International visitors

A 34.7% increase from 2023, generating $647 million in revenue in 2024

National Institute of Statistics of Rwanda, FinScope Rwanda 2024; World Bank, Rwanda Economic Update and Macro Poverty Outlook (2025); Rwanda Development Board / National Bank of Rwanda, Foreign Private Capital in Rwanda 2025; Rwanda Development Board, Annual Report 2024.

RWANDA

Measured in Change

Progress is not measured by where a country stands, but by how far it has moved, and how much further it can go.

Chartered Ground uses data storytelling to document that movement and reveal the fuller picture of a changing world.

CHARTED GROUND

@chartedground